

Quick Quack Car Wash to Hold Company-wide Fundraiser this Friday for Victims of Hurricane Harvey Flooding in Houston

Quick Quack will Donate 100% of Car Wash Proceeds and Customer Contributions at all Locations from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday, September 8th

ROSEVILLE, CALIFORNIA, USA, September 6, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Quick Quack Car Wash, a growing chain of regional car washes, has announced a company-wide fundraising event to be held in support of flood victims resulting from Hurricane Harvey in Houston, Texas including Quick Quack team members and families. The fundraiser will be held Friday, September 8th from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. local time at all Quick Quack Car Wash locations. Quick Quack currently operates car washes in Texas, California, Utah, and Colorado.

“We have several locations in Houston and are saddened by the devastation that has reached the communities of our customers and directly impacted some of our own team members,” said Jason Johnson, Founder and CEO of Quick Quack Car Wash. “We are moved and inspired as a company to participate in the outpouring of love and support from across the nation.”

Quick Quack Car Wash will donate one hundred percent of the proceeds from all car wash sales, as well as any additional donations customers may want to contribute, directly to flood victims in Houston and surrounding areas. Quick Quack will not be retaining any amount to cover operating expenses. Questions about how donations will be used can be directed to info@dontdrivedirty.com.
