

Cache Elite Inc.,(ILUS) Unveils New Venture Into the $341 Billion Travel Industry

With A Unique Blend Of Technology And Humans

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, September 12, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cache Elite Inc. (ILUS) -- As alluded to an earlier press release. Cache Elite Inc. (ILUS) is pleased to announce the completion of its new online worldwide travel portal.

TripWitz.com provides travel services to more than 20,000 destinations with an inventory of more than 500,000 hotel partners, luxury villas, airlines, ground transportation and adventure activity providers. The site provides a user friendly vacation planning experience and access to a certified destination specialist that will assist customers in maximizing their vacation budget.

There are approximately half the number of travel agents working in the U.S. as there were in 2000, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. This new paradigm has created a space, once more, for old-fashioned "human" customer service. USA Today reported that Clayton Reid of MMGY, the largest travel market organization in the world, that the 34% of millennials surveyed said they had consulted a traditional travel agent in the last 12 months. This percentage is higher than any other age segment, and 39% stated that they plan to do so in the next two years.

"I used a travel agent for years until Expedia and Travelocity became a presence. However, I now find myself overwhelmed by too much information, hidden fees, and confused about where and when to go to get the best value. And in today's unpredictable global conditions, I want a professional travel advocate on my side who I can call for help in the event of an unforeseen circumstance, said C.E.O. Derrick McWilliams." McWilliams went on to say, "We're very excited by the data collected along with 1.3 million users during the last eight months of our beta launch. This is new additional sector for the company and we believe the numbers suggest that our new service is in high demand."
