ComforceHealth Launches Healthcare Solutions Blog

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, September 14, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ComforceHealth, an innovative industry-leading healthcare services company, and an operating brand within the ACS Group, recently launched its new company blog. The blog is dedicated to “The Business of Healthcare,” and sharing information and best practices in Health Information Management, Medical Coding, and Clinical Documentation Integrity (CDI), to name a few.

The original content is provided by the following ComforceHealth industry experts: Robyn Stambaugh, MS, RHIA, Vice President of HIM Services; and Jocelyn Murray, RN, CCDS, Director of CDI & Case Management.

“Our thought leaders will share their expertise on a variety of healthcare-related topics,” said Robyn Stambaugh, ComforceHealth Vice President of HIM Services. “This blog will contain a wealth of information surrounding the latest trends in CDI, Information Governance (IG), compliance, and quality. We will address emerging trends in healthcare, i.e., the impact of value-based care models, population health, and the necessity of IG in healthcare.”

Collectively, the contributing authors and editors of this blog have a vast amount of experience in the healthcare solutions and services space and will use their expertise to address current industry pain points. ComforceHealth is scheduled to release at least two articles per month. Please visit www.comforcehealth.acsicorp.com/comforcehealthblog for more information.
