

Aspire Systems Becomes a Boomi World Diamond Sponsor

Aspire Systems to introduce AURAS (Aspire Unified Reference Architecture), a solution accelerator, built with Boomi industry leading iPaaS at Boomi World 2017.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, September 14, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aspire Systems, a Dell Boomi™ (Boomi) partner, today announced that it is a Boomi World Diamond sponsor. Boomi is the leading provider of cloud integration and workflow automation software to build The Connected Business.

The first annual Boomi World customer conference will take place at The Westin St Francis hotel in San Francisco from September 20-22 2017 and will bring together the global Boomi community of innovators using the world's leading cloud-native integration platform to build connected businesses that run better, faster and smarter.

Aspire's accelerator solution AURAS is built with Boomi infrastructure platform as a service (iPaaS) to help clients speed-up their entire implementation process. The solution will ensure customers experience rapid deployment, smoother integration cycles, and faster time-to-market.

Hariharan, Head of Enterprise Integration at Aspire Systems Inc. said, "We are excited about AURAS-Dell Boomi partnership as we aim to leverage it to deliver fast and secure enterprise-class integration that can serve a wider range of customers. With Boomi's integration platform, AURAS can deliver complex integrations in a robust and accelerated fashion thereby helping our customer achieve enhanced productivity and business agility."
