

Hurricanes Irma and Harvey: Give hope today

TAMPA, FL, UNITED STATES,
September 14, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/
-- Only a week after Hurricane Harvey ripped across the Gulf Coast, Hurricane Irma went on a destructive path through the Southeast. Our research team at the National Christian Foundation (NCF) has compiled lists of on-the-ground charities that are actively mobilizing volunteers, supplies, and critical support for both storms' victims.

You can recommend grants from your Giving Fund to these ministries and churches to show your support and help give hope today.

Look for continued updates to the listings as we research and add additional charities.

Thank you for your generosity!
