

TouchStar expands global reach at World LPG 2017 in Marrakech

TouchStar will be attending the World LPG Forum in Marrakech, Morocco, 3-5 October 2017, in Booth #47.

VIENNA, AUSTRIA, September 19, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TouchStar, a multinational provider of logistics and mobility software solutions, announced that it will be attending the World LPG Forum in Marrakech, Morocco, 3-5 October 2017. The World LPG Forum serves as both a platform to discuss issues relevant to the LPG industry and as an arena for companies to showcase their latest innovations for a global audience.

TouchStar, who will be situated in Booth 47, will be one of roughly 81 propane and LPG vendors exhibiting at the World LPG Forum, a show that will welcome more than 1,500 attendees from 76 different countries. While in Morocco, TouchStar will highlight its propane and LP gas distribution Android application, TransPac LPG, and the company's integrated telematics and fleet tracking solution, TS FleetWatch.

“

The World LPG Forum provides very unique opportunities for TouchStar to continue its forward momentum as a leader in the LPG industry.”

Robert Pabeschitz, General Manager, TS EMEA

“After a fruitful conference last year in Florence, we look forward to exhibiting again this year in Marrakech,” said TS EMEA’s General Manager, Robert Pabeschitz. “TouchStar’s involvement in global LPG service automation has always been strong. The World LPG Forum provides very unique opportunities for TouchStar to continue its forward momentum as a leader in the industry.”

TouchStar’s goal at the show is to deepen its relationships with the members of the global propane & LP gas distribution industry and to provide increased insight into its propane and LP gas enterprise solutions at the event. At press time, TouchStar’s integrations fleet software is utilized by over 500 companies internationally.

“Beyond merely being a center for global business and economic growth, Marrakech in particular and Africa in general is quickly becoming one of the world’s most significant LPG consumers,” said TouchStar CEO, Peter Gibbs. “It is only fitting that this key industry event takes place in a region with such unparalleled potential within the LPG industry.”
