

DMway Announces New Website Launch

The new and completely redesigned website offers visitors richer insight into the company's augmented analytics tool

JERUSALEM, ISRAEL, September 19, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- DMway, the practical solution that allows every business user in an organization to create valuable predictive analytics and machine learning algorithms without the complexity of data science, announced today the launch of its newly revamped website.

This website, tailor-made for its growing community of business users, now offers quick and easy access to essential information and product features, and a more comprehensive understanding of the company's innovative augmented analytics tool. The website also has a comprehensive use-cases section perfect for the growing number of data analysts, practitioners and users looking for information about some of the key industries in which DMway can be most helpful.

We believe that DMway is the best, easiest to use and most agile predictive analytics tool, able to upscale any business user to better fit the digital world.”

Gil Nizri, CEO, DMway

The new website went live last week at the same address as its predecessor - www.dmway.com

“We are excited about our new website launch and the robust information it provides for customers, investors, partners and media to better understand DMway,” said Gil Nizri, DMway CEO. “We believe that DMway is the best, easiest to use and most agile predictive analytics tool, able to upscale any business user to better fit the digital world.”

DMway's new website will be updated regularly. Visitors are encouraged to explore the website and sign up for direct emails from DMway at www.dmway.com.
