SouthFloridaReview.com was created for people that love local news and deals.

Everett Wilkinson, Editor, explains, "As a kid, I grew up looking for "deals" on quality products and service."

"Unfortunately, we are bombarded with advertising today, and this doesn't always mean a deal. Nearly everywhere you look, there is some form of advertisement. The problem starts when you start trying to find a local deal. Say you want to try a new restaurant for lunch. Doing an Internet search will pull up ads for stuff you want, and most likely more you don't want (like skin tag solutions...lol)"

Wilkinson continues, "There are sites like Groupon but are limited because a lot of companies don't want to grossly discount something and then have Groupon hold their money for months. At SouthFloridaReview.com, companies pay a flat low rate to be listed. That is it. This allows them to offer real deals to our subscribers."

South Florida Review prides itself as a "win win" because subscribers get a "real deal" and the business gets a new customer!

Users can search for all kinds of businesses from lock smiths to restaurants. Each business has special promotion for news customers.

An example business would be Sugarland Tours. Come aboard our 24-passenger Sugarland Express (or bring a larger group on your own bus) for an exciting and informative 3 1/2 hour heritage and agriculture tour. Step back in time with a historical tour of Clewiston and Lake Okeechobee. You'll get an up-close look at a sugarcane farm and even get to chop and chew our sweetest crop. Take in the latest in farming techniques and technology as well as a journey to the Clewiston sugar mill & refinery. Lastly, we can't forget your vitamin C. We will make a stop at Southern Gardens Citrus, one of Florida's most state-of-the-art citrus processing facilities. Find more information:
