Entering its 6th season, Enigma Haunt, 1751 N. Military Trail in Boca Raton, is the most intense indoor haunted attraction in South Florida and voted as the 2016 #1 Top Haunt in Florida and among the Top 31 Haunts in the Nation by The Scare Factor. Open for 15 days this season, including Halloween night, Enigma Haunt pans more than 20,000 sq feet and two floors, featuring three spine tingling attractions under one roof - Pandemic, Into Oblivion and Realms of Terror.

“This is going to be our most thrilling season yet, our guests will find it both terrifying and entertaining,” said Billy Groeneveld, owner and co-creator of Enigma Haunt with his wife Karen. “We have always put a lot of work and thought into our haunt and we spend our off season traveling the country, visiting cities and other haunted attractions. We have come up with new thrills throughout the attraction and created new surprises to keep the mind guessing. It's intense, scary and fun.”

Each year, parts of the attraction are knocked down to make room for new areas, creating different themes, characters and scares. Strategically built to provide the ultimate experience with intense details and unbelievable set design, Enigma Haunt also has more than 80 trained actors who know and enjoy various scare techniques, a professional makeup and costume team and integrated state-of-the-art special effects that tease each of the five senses. From their own imagination, to those collective conscious themes found in nightmares, on the big screen and common phobias, Enigma Haunt has created a surreal reality, filled with creatures, both human and not. Come opening night, the entire crew comes together to awaken Enigma Haunt for the season, bringing this extraordinary live horror theatrical attraction to life.

Presale tickets go on sale Friday, Sept. 1st for Realms of Terror or the best deal, the Triple Terror Pack for all three haunts. To skip the line for the attraction, Enigma Haunt offers the R.I.P. Priority Pass for all 3 haunts. Enigma Haunt caters to all ages, but may be too intense for those 12 and under.

Enigma Haunt is an award winning, family owned and operated haunted attraction that began 18 years ago with a simple set-up just on their front patio to entertain trick-or-treaters on Halloween night. Each year, as the kids got older, the home-haunt grew. In 2012, they converted the home-haunt to a professional, entertaining and ultimate haunted attraction. Today, Enigma Haunt has a full professional crew of set designers, actors, makeup and costume artists and scares more than 10,000 guests each season.
