PUNE, INDIA, September 22, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Wearable Patch Market 2017

Wearable patches can be affixed to the skin and can be worn for a few hours to a couple of weeks. These patches are used for the treatment and delivery of medications such as nicotine. They are also used as anti-aging patches. The connected wearable patches feature wireless connectivity, in addition to the features of regular wearable patches, which help in monitoring the health of an individual and delivering drugs accordingly. The analysts forecast the global wearable patch market to grow at a CAGR of 88.27%, in terms of shipment, during the period 2016-2020.
