

Mormon Drama in Vienna

Former missionary opens up about his struggles in the Latter-day Church in Jason Cloud's performance piece Jack Mormon.

VIENNA, AUSTRIA, September 23, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Vienna-based artist gets dark and personal with his theatrics and music. This "stand-up tragicomedy" explores the failed suicide attempt of a Mormon missionary left with fragments of the past to put together and a present to reassess. "There are a lot of rumors and misconceptions about the Church to this day, and I want to put out my findings from first-hand experience."

Born in the US, Jason Cloud relocates to Europe in 2010 in pursuit of his personal, professional and artistic development in the music capital of the world. A relatively new face in the Vienna English-speaking entertainment scene, Cloud does not shy away from addressing social taboos in his acts which are critical and oftentimes self-deprecating.

Jack Mormon will debut in Vienna this December. For additional information and updates visit <http://www.jasonsinclaircloud.com/events.html>
