

NYSC loses former Director-General

The Director-General, Management, staff and all Corps members nationwide mourn the demise of the 13th Chief Executive of the National Youth Service Corps, Brig

ABUJA, ABUJA, NIGERIA, September 23, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The statement by the National Youth Service Corps announcing the death of its former Director-General reads:

“The Director-General, Management, staff and all Corps members nationwide mourn the demise of the 13th Chief Executive of the National Youth Service Corps, Brigadier General Yusuf Bomo (Rtd.) whose sad death occurred today following a brief illness.

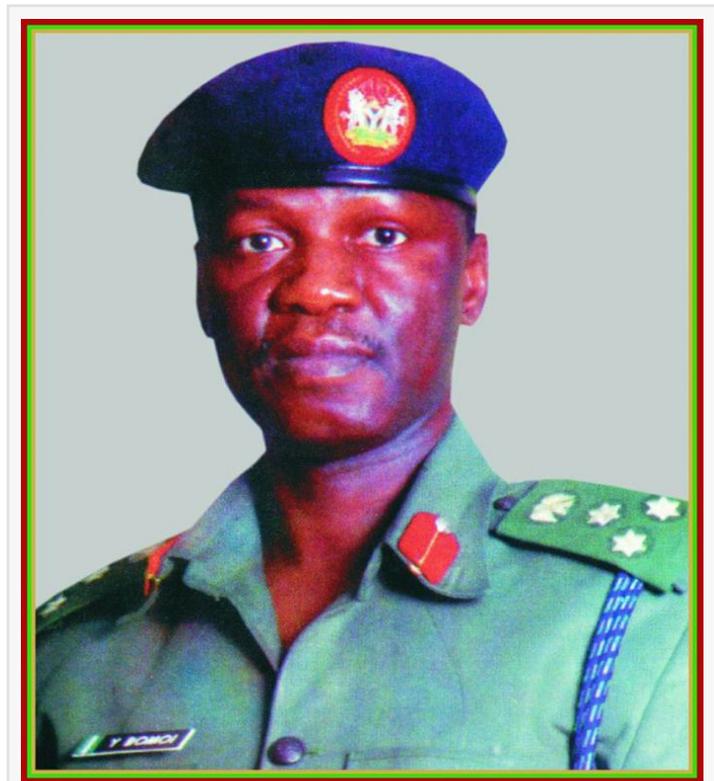

“His funeral rites were conducted today in Abuja according to Islamic rites.

“Brigadier General Bomo was the Director-General from October 2004 to January 2009 and was credited with many achievements, especially his humane disposition to the welfare of corps members and staff. Equally unforgettable were his unparalleled administrative skills in running the affairs of the NYSC as the Director General.

“His death is a great loss not only to the immediate family, but also the NYSC family and the rest of the nation.

“Our thoughts are with his loved ones even as we pray to Almighty Allah to grant him eternal rest, and comfort them in this moment of grief.
