

Cindy Ormiston of Tranquil Vibrations to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, September 27, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- There is so little we understand about the true nature of chronic pain and dis-ease, what causes it and why it can be so severe. And yet doctors routinely prescribe incredibly addicting drugs to manage it. It makes sense to take a step back and look from a completely different angle with a different perspective. There's an energetic component to our traumatic experiences and they deserve to be explored, especially if the alternative can offer no reasonable hope.

Cindy Ormiston is the founder of Tranquil Vibrations, an energy healing practice that specializes in reconnective healing, realigning you emotionally, mentally, spiritually and physically. Cindy reconnects your body to the meridian lines of the universe and the infinite wisdom of the universe and facilitates reconnective healing in person or distance.

"Often times our energy flow is shut down and we need to get it set back up," explains Cindy. "By reconnecting with that energetic source, the life force itself, we're able to access what we've always known."

In 2011, Cindy suffered a terrible accident that almost removed her right arm. After surgery to repair the broken bones and torn muscles, Cindy was left with a condition known as complex regional pain syndrome. Prescribed class-A narcotics to manage her excruciating pain and anxiety, Cindy found herself on a hopeless path.

"My life crumbled to nothing," recalls Cindy. "One of my physicians said, 'This is where your life is. These are the drugs you're going to take for the rest of your life. You probably have seven years before you overdose.'"

Thankfully, Cindy found salvation in reconnective healing with Dr. Eric Pearl.

"I felt this warming sensation at the back of my shoulders. It was a feeling of relaxing, loving and caring. I wasn't being touched," recalls Cindy. "Dr. Pearl said, 'If you trust me, put your elbow in my hand and let me take all the weight,' as he gently raised my arm completed above my head. It was a position it hadn't been in for four years and for the first time in four years I had no pain. This was profound. And I knew this was one of those life changing moments.

Cindy walked away from all the medications she'd been taking and came home ready to launch Tranquil Vibrations to help others as Dr. Pearl helped her.

"In helping others heal themselves, I heal myself," says Cindy. "Every time I work with a client and they experience a change, my life becomes richer, fuller, happier, healthier, healed. Every time I do energetics with somebody I'm transforming with them."

CUTV News Radio will feature Cindy Ormiston in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on September 29th at 3pm EDT.
