

BoardBookit Completes Initial Closing of $1.8 Million Series A Funding

PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, September 27, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BoardBookit announced today that it completed the initial closing of its Series A funding on September 15. The investment round was led by Golden Seeds New York with the participation of Blue Tree Allied Angels, Innovation Works, NextActFund and other existing investors.

BoardBookit has disrupted the traditional board portal landscape by providing highly secure board management solutions with leading-edge technology.

Instead of focusing on complicated, custom implementations, BoardBookit provides a true SaaS (Software as a Service) solution that gets companies up and running in hours instead of weeks or months, doesn't require IT resources, and places control in the hands of administrators. Leveraging its innovative and highly competitive platform, BoardBookit will use the funds to ramp up sales and marketing efforts.

BoardBookit Board Portal Software

BoardBookit has developed a board portal platform that is not only competitive with the legacy board portals in the marketplace but significantly improves on the concept.”

Marion Lewis, CEO

“Over the last four years, BoardBookit has developed a board portal platform that is not only competitive with the legacy board portals in the marketplace,” said Marion Lewis, CEO of BoardBookit, “but significantly improves on the concept by using new technology that increases ease of use for admins and directors in a variety of ways.”

Founded in 2012, BoardBookit has created a true SaaS solution for companies and boards of directors. By leveraging new technology, BoardBookit has created a board portal platform that helps organizations to securely manage all aspects of board communication and governance including scheduling, material distribution, approvals, and document storage while providing simple and intuitive mobile access for board directors.

About BoardBookit
