State of the Union speakers also included Anthony K. Miller; CEO US Energy Initiatives Corp Inc., Monique Washington, Dr. Rosie Milligan, and Bradley Walker. The company will close its Initial Public Offering (IPO) Wednesday, October 4, 2017 and focus on executing the company's business model. Aspects of the business model include creating thousands of new jobs and producing over 300 feature films & television shows over the next four (4) years post IPO.

“It was an honor to have Herb Hudson as a speaker at the Punch TV Studios State of the Union address” says Punch TV Studios CEO Joseph Collins. “The company is growing and expanding at a phenomenal rate. Roscoe's House of Chicken & Waffles has been an invaluable part of the company's progression. We are projected to generate over $24 million in annual revenue in Southern California alone and generate over $1.3 billion in total revenue by year four (4) post IPO. We are able to do that because of the continued dedication of our investor base.”

The Punch TV Studios IPO will close Wednesday, October 4, 2017, but there is still time for investors to purchase their stock directly from the company at $1.00 per share.
