Description

WiseGuyReports.Com adds" Global Interactive Kiosk Market 2015-2019 "Research To Its Database.

An interactive kiosk is a customized computer terminal that is either standalone or networked, and is used to access information and services round the clock. It is a self-service technology installed in malls, airports, hotel lobbies, cafeterias, airports, and other places that witness high footfall. An interactive kiosk consists of a monitor that is usually touch-enabled. Interactive kiosks enable service providers to cater to a large number of customers with fewer support staff.

The analysts forecast the revenue of the global interactive kiosk market to grow at a CAGR of 11.40% over the period 2014-2019.
