Terry Funk, Sandman, Masada & WARBEAST Melee Yields Blood & Future Match

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 11, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Los Angeles-based professional wrestling promotion, Pacific Coast Wrestling (PCWTM) turned the wrestling world upside down Saturday night with its DEMONIZED event. Fans not only witnessed the Sandman's return to Southern California, but the hardcore legend, Terry Funk, getting bludgeoned by the promotion's tag team champions, WARBEAST.

Funk, who was at the event a part of a meet and greet with fans, came to the ring after intermission and was delivering a speech to the fans when he was interrupted by legend, Kevin Sullivan, who is one of the members of WARBEAST. Sullivan told Funk to "get the f@ck out of the ring" and WARBEAST hit the ring. Funk retreated just as the hardcore icon, Sandman entered through the venue's front door with Masada. The crowd erupted as the pair hit the ring, and a melee ensued - tables and chairs were broken; beer was spilled, as was blood. The match ended in a no contest when Josef hung the Sandman outside the ring with a chain, and Funk made the save.

Funk was then spiked repeatedly in the head by Josef, which left the hardcore legend a bloody mess in need of medical attention. The Sandman made the save, clearing the ring with his cane and the pair issued a challenge to WARBEAST for PCW's next event, Refuse to Lose, which happens Friday, December 1 in Wilmington, CA.
