The annual awards recognize top Microsoft partners demonstrating excellence in innovation and implementation of customer solutions based on Microsoft technology. Winners were selected from more than 2,800 nominations collected from 115 countries worldwide based on their commitment to customers, their solution's impact on the market, and exemplary use of Microsoft technologies.

“Attunix is the gold standard of a Microsoft partner that always brings their best and operates as a true partner in every aspect,” said Julie Leers, general manager of corporate accounts at Microsoft. “They are responsive, knowledgeable, innovative, and always go the extra mile to help customers.”

The awards took place as part of Microsoft Inspire, formerly known as Microsoft's Worldwide Partner Conference (WPC). The annual event, now in its 14th year, hosted over 17,000 attendees celebrating outstanding achievement across Microsoft's large community of partners, system integrators and service providers.

“We are pleased to be recognized alongside other leading companies from around the globe,” said Matt O'Donnell, CEO at Attunix. “It reflects the dedication of our employees to constantly innovate and design the best solutions with a customer-first focus.”

O'Donnell, believes that it's this commitment to innovation, specifically as a purely cloud-based organization, that creates tremendous opportunity ahead for its customers. Microsoft agrees.

According to Leers, “Attunix understands the challenges and opportunities of today's customers and is guiding the C-suite through their digital transformation.”
