India Engineering Services Outsourcing (ESO) Market

Description

WiseGuyReports.Com adds" Engineering Services Outsourcing (ESO) Market in India 2015-2019 "Research To Its Database.

ESO refers to the outsourcing of specific engineering services. Engineering services are the core business activities of industries such as automotive and aerospace. However, due to lack of expertise and increased pressure to reduce costs, companies have started outsourcing their engineering services requirements. The need for quick delivery of products and services because of shorter product lifecycle has prompted the need for ESO. In addition, the inherent benefit of cost advantage remains a key criterion for businesses outsourcing their engineering services.
