

Translation On Demand, Janus Worldwide Roll Out Express Translation Service

Leading Global Content Communications, Translation & Localization service provider, Janus Worldwide, offer customers an Express Translation Service within 4hrs!

HUDDERSFIELD, WEST YORKSHIRE, UNITED KINGDOM, October 23, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Historically within the localization industry, a small volume of translation or rapid turnaround has involved hefty surcharges. In 2016 Janus decided to tackle this problem and gave its customers a new automated service to handoff urgent translations with a guaranteed SLA. Janus Express allows clients to send small volumes of words for translation via our online customer portal. Users can either upload a file or copy and paste text or strings directly into the system; this is then picked up immediately by a project manager dealing with the associated client account and it goes straight to translation.

Since pricing is clear and transparent, and we engage with subscribers to Janus Express on a contract basis, there is no need for time to be taken creating quotes, it simply goes straight for translation, passes through QA and is delivered back within the agreed SLA.

Janus Express is an on-demand solution which allows us to solve a big problem for many clients, it gives them piece of mind that short deadlines can be achieved without excessive costs”

Steve Higgins, Sales Director

How does Express work? We have developed a customer friendly portal in order to make the process of sending requests as quick and simple as possible. Users can log in to a safe environment, using a unique user name and password, in which they can submit either small translation requests or urgent translation requests.

“We developed our automated express translation solution to complement our service offering to global clients. By offering our customers an additional service that really adds value & cements our place as a localization partner to many of the world's leading organizations and enterprise” said Steve

Higgins, Sales Director Europe at Janus Worldwide

"Janus Express is an on-demand solution which allows us to solve a big problem for many clients, it gives them piece of mind that short deadlines can be achieved, they avoid hefty surcharges that are often charged by other language service providers and they can track the progress of each request via our online dashboard"

Currently Janus Express supports the following target languages- Finnish, French, German, Japanese, Polish, Portuguese, Spanish, Italian, Russian & Swedish. 10 more languages will be added in Q1 2018 as part of our continued development.
