

Are Millennials' Wishes About To Come True Inside A Castle?

One startup plans to combine co-living, co-owning, and sharing inside a modern-day castle to answer Millennials' wishes.

DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, October 24, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Most Millennials wish to live different lives than their parents. They wish to be entrepreneurs. They wish to have a say in their futures. They wish to work in healthy corporate cultures. They wish to share things. They wish to co-live. They wish to impact the world. Nothing existed on this planet that could answer all their wishes, until now. One startup plans to make Millennials wishes come true inside an unlikely place - a castle.

The vision behind Castle V combines co-living, co-owning, and sharing inside a modern-day castle. "We believe Castle V is the answer to Millennials' wishes," states a Castle V co-founder.

Placed inside the castle will be the world's first 100% employee-owned film production company. "An employee-owned business allows Millennials to control their futures, unleash their creativity, and share in the wealth the company creates. This answers their wish of entrepreneurship and ownership," states a Castle V founder.

Millennials are opting out of homeownership, wishing to co-live instead. The Atlantic magazine wrote the article, "the millennial housing trend is a repeat of the middle ages." Co-living rent-free inside private oceanside Castle V's apartments answers their wish!

Uber and Airbnb proved Millennials love to share things. Co-living and co-working inside Castle V allow Millennials to share more toys than they could individually own. Millennials inside the castle will share Tesla cars, ATV's, jet skis, boats, Class A RVs, motorcycles and much more. Another wish answered.

There isn't a Millennial that doesn't wish for a great work-life balance. With no fighting rush hour, free onsite doctors, dentists, veterinarians and maid service, Millennials will gain hundreds of hours of their life back. Plus they can enjoy tons of planned castle amenities which include a movie theater, dance club, rock climbing, salon spa, ice-skating rink, water park, gyms, a trampoline center, wine & beer bar, doggie daycare resort, surf simulator and more. More wishes answered.

More than a paycheck, Millennials wish to make a difference in the world. Castle V's founders plan to make their wish come true by becoming one of the world's most generous and giving companies. Environmentally conscious Millennials wishes are answered by powering the castle with 100% renewable energy.

A Harvard 75-year study revealed that quality relationships keep people happier and healthier more than anything else. Millennials greatest wish is to be part of a fantastic community. Castle V's founders postulate - based on Harvard's research - living, working, and sharing things inside Castle V will make Millennials' most desirable wish come true.

Although every age is welcomed to be part of Castle V, the founders make no bones about their focus on Millennials. The team behind Castle V will remain anonymous until Castle V's free live webcast event on 11-11.
