“We are so thankful to McCormack for their understanding and the great work ethic of their staff. They are a respected company with exceptional employees and I wouldn’t think twice about referring them to anyone looking for an honest, professional, licensed and bonded roofing company with courteous and efficient employees,” says Jennifer Neves, one of McCormack’s clients.

“They showed up on time and completed on schedule despite finding quite a lot of termite damage that required repair prior to the roofing replacement. They did a fantastic job of site clean up and my driveway was cleaner after they left than before they arrived! Customer service was very good and they stayed in touch throughout, updating progress, getting approvals prior to proceeding with repairs, etc.,” says Robert F., a client from Redondo Beach, Calif.
