

Cynthia Harris of Classical Entertainment to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, UNITED STATES, October 26, 2017

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Every day we experience the magic of music. We listen to music, watch videos and attend concerts of famous musicians and rock stars from all around the world. But more often than not we hardly recognize the talent of the musicians behind the scenes.

Cynthia Harris is the founder and owner of Classical Entertainment, a live-music booking agency specializing in custom ambiance music. A professional pianist and music educator in her own right, with Classical Entertainment, Cynthia books quality talent for discerning clients, contracting artists ranging from solo instruments to duos, trios, quartets, and custom ensembles within the jazz, pop and classic rock genres, as well as easy listening and lite classical.

With Las Vegas known as a global leader in conventions and corporate events, as well as destination weddings, Classical Entertainment musicians have the opportunity to perform in multiple settings.

"This is my niche," says Cynthia, "providing top-tier talent playing ambiance music while the client and guests are networking and moving deals forward."

While Cynthia runs Classical Entertainment, she is also working behind the lines as a professional musician herself. Drawing upon her background as a classically trained pianist, she takes delight in playing for a variety of musical entities.

But there is another side to Cynthia's musicianship: her passion for teaching. Sharing her gifts and passing on the love of music to students of all ages has always been a part of her life.

“When you see a child’s eyes light up, this type of joy makes me so thankful and so full of gratitude! My work collectively gets to be one of bringing love, music, and healing to all people. God blessed me with the gift of music and the richness I carry inside me is indescribable. I am so grateful to the teachers that passed on their skills and their love of the art form, for through their example they taught me joy in both playing and giving back.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Cynthia Harris in an interview with Jim Masters on October 30th at 1pm EDT.
