About Kids' Smartwatch

A smartwatch is a computerized wristwatch with functionality that goes beyond timekeeping. While early models aided in calculations, translations, and games, contemporary smartwatches are recognized as wearable computers. Many smartwatches in the global market are incorporated with mobile operating systems. A few smartwatches function as portable media players and are incorporated with the Bluetooth wireless technology or a Universal Serial Bus (USB) headset.

Technavio's analysts forecast the global kids' smartwatch market to grow at a CAGR of 15.93% during the period 2017-2021.
