

Victoria Rahming of Rahming, Hancock, Graham & Associates to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, October 31, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Everybody wants to be their own boss – you want the flexibility and freedom – but entrepreneurship is not for the faint of heart. There is much to consider before launching a business.

Victoria Rahming is the founder of Rahming, Hancock, Graham & Associates, an income tax preparation and payroll services company that specializes in small business consulting. Rahming & Associates help individuals who want to go into business to establish their structure.

“Most small businesses owners do what they do very well, but when it comes to running the business part, they are often lacking,” says Rahming. “There are subtle nuances to running the back end of a business and that’s the part we help them with.”

Since 2006, Rahming & Associates have been helping entrepreneurs grow their businesses, offering solutions customized to your goals. Whether they want to be an LLC, S-Corp, C-Corp, partnerships or sole proprietorship, Rahming explains it all from understanding the tax code to the essential bookkeeping, accounting and marketing. Anything a small business needs, Rahming can help you establish yourself to grow your business the right way.

And while most business owners approach Rahming just to help them get set up, they typically end up coming back for additional services. Rahming is always willing to hold their hand through the process. That’s her favorite part.

“I enjoy a challenge. I enjoy puzzles,” says Rahming. “Where do you want to be five years from now? Is this a company where you can grow? Ultimately, you don’t want to be your business. You want to be able to delegate and move on to other things, maybe even start another business.”

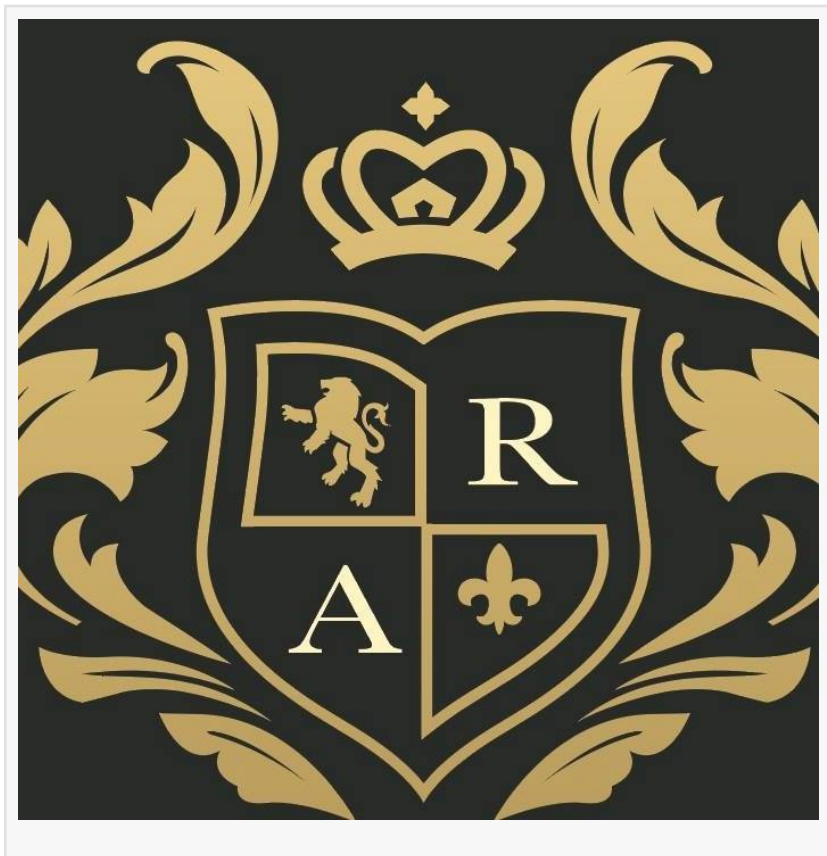

CUTV News Radio will feature Victoria Rahming in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on November 2nd at 10am EDT and with Jim Masters on November 9th at 10am EDT.
