

Luethje Recognized for “Quantum Leap” in Real Estate

SILICON VALLEY, CALIFORNIA, USA, October 30, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Silicon Valley, Ca – At the Craig Proctor Super Conference in Anaheim last weekend, Steve Luethje, Founder of the Luethje Group at Realty One Infinity, was presented with the coveted Quantum Leap Award. Steve received the award for having made the most significant gains in his real estate business during the past year.

Craig Proctor is an international real estate coach who has been ranked the number #1 worldwide with RE/MAX and has been in the top ten for the past fifteen years. Proctor has shared his selling systems with 30,000 of the most successful real estate agents in the world. To be named the biggest achiever in this elite group is no small feat but Steve Luethje deserves it.

During the extremely low inventory market Steve was able to nearly triple his sales due to his rigorous implementation of the Craig Proctor system for getting homes sold. He is in the top 1% of agents in the valley for total dollar volume and number of homes sold with over 7 times the number of sales versus the average agent.

Steve attributes his success to being creative, adapting quickly to market changes, and the unique buyer and seller incentives that their competitors don't offer.

In rising to the top of his field, Steve Luethje has become a national resource for many others in the real estate industry. He's been featured speaker at national real estate conferences and has been interviewed on several coaching calls. Congratulations on a successful year!
