

Anonymous Social Media App, Social Number Releases Anonymous Chat

App Continues To Gain Momentum With Subscribers in over 180 Countries as the new release expands anonymous social media functionality to include chat

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, October 31, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Social Number, the only anonymous social network that offers users a permanent identity with a number, just released 2.0 version on Android and iOS with anonymous chat as one of the main highlights among other features. While the concept is different from other anonymous chat providers like Snap Chat, WeChat and others, it allows users to connect with other anonymous pals and chat anonymously as part of a broader social media app. Validating the need for users to anonymously discuss sensitive issues – religion, politics, dating, gun control, hacking, and hundreds others – freely, Social Number users now represent over 180 countries in all continents from big countries like United States, India, France, and Germany to tiny countries like Mayotte off the Mozambique coast.

Unlike other social media sites like Reddit and Topix, Social Number users get a true social media experience while connecting with others around the world that share the same interests but need a virtual place to have open, but private discussions. Since inception, users have participated in over 2000 discussion groups, with Atheism, Anonymous, and Sex among the most popular groups so far. With one, unique simple number, users can openly discuss their views without the threat of bosses, professors and others.

In addition to group discussions, users are connecting with other like-minded people called Pals on the site, based their profiles. Users are also expressing themselves on their expressions page with their thoughts, frustrations, and feelings.
