Author Shares Temptation So Sweet

MEMPHIS, TN, UNITED STATES, November 1, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Life constantly gives every person with unique battles. Some people win their challenges and learn from their experiences while others struggle to make it through to each day. Author Felicia Johnson debuts Temptation So Sweet, an enthralling fiction novel that introduces the character of a woman who unceasingly struggles after a tragedy from the past.

Pharise Mallard finally loses her lucidity. To the people around her, it seems her mother's death has created her inner chaos. Her grief has caused her to lose focus on her job and everything that she had worked for. Her career has taken a sudden turn for the worst, her friends can no longer understand her actions, and she can hardly live a normal life. For two years now, she has been suffering with a stress-related disorder and her depression has been making her an ineffective individual. Pharise gets to encounter probably the most exhausting day of her life as she submits her legal analysis which her boss considers to be her worst in the last six years. Her boss, Jason Williams conducts a performance review and blames her failure to scrutinize every angle of the case. This was the first of her as she used to be the "go-to" person to uncover negligence and she was an overachiever who never had any issues about meeting deadlines. After seeing Pharise's struggles at work, Jason suggests for her to take a break to get things back together. She has not had a good sleep and right now her head and her stomach hurt. Realizing how bad her life had turned out, Pharise begins to see the need to turn things around for herself and the people around her. She reopens an old case and proves her worth once again. This leads her into a series of bewildering events as well as an encounter with some people who will commit deadly acts to keep the case closed. With the twist and turns that await Pharise, will she be able to survive this test?

Felicia Johnson's Temptation So Sweet uses a fictional approach but conveys circumstances that can happen in reality. Many people live each day trying to find the answers to their never-ending questions. Some are living by simply following the motions of life, while others chase for their purpose of living. Pharise's character is relatable to every reader who is fronting a trial. The book teaches an important lesson about making every bad situation an inspiration to find the courage to make it through. This edifying piece by Felicia Johnson is indubitably hard to put down!
