

GlobalSim Contracts with West Gulf Maritime Association for Crane Simulators

GlobalSim, Inc. is pleased to announce that it has recently contracted with the West Gulf Maritime Association (WGMA).

SANDY, UTAH, UNITED STATES, November 7, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Salt Lake City, UT – GlobalSim, Inc. is pleased to announce that it has recently contracted with the West Gulf Maritime Association (WGMA) to provide two (2) Full Mission crane simulators to train crane operators in the Houston, Texas area. The premium simulators will both feature GlobalSim's state-of-the-art motion system and will provide training for operators on Ship-to-Shore (STS), Rubber Tired Gantry (RTG), and Ship Pedestal Cranes.

"We're happy to be partnering with WGMA to deliver them our latest generation of crane simulators" remarks Brad Ball, GlobalSim's Vice President of Sales and Marketing. "They've gone the extra mile to evaluate and ensure they're purchasing the right simulators for their organization. Their team has been exceptional to work with on every level."

Chelsea Egmon, WGMA's Vice President of Labor Relations remarks "After extensive research, we selected GlobalSim as our vendor and we could not be more excited about what lies ahead. Their products and customer service really stood out above the rest and we look forward to incorporating both simulators into our training program to better serve the maritime industry in the west gulf."

The simulators are currently being developed at GlobalSim's headquarters in the Salt Lake City, Utah area. Once completed, the systems will go through rigorous testing before being sent to WGMA and installed in early 2018.
