ADDISON, ILLINOIS, U.S. , November 7, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- B2B Industrial Packaging just announced that it will be showcasing products that include high performance rope at Pacific Marine Expo Nov. 16-18 at the CenturyLink Field Event Center in Seattle, Wash. The event is the largest commercial marine tradeshow on the West Coast, serving commercial mariners from Alaska to California. B2B Industrial Packaging President Bill Drake said, "Participating in this expo is a way for us to introduce ourselves to the very vibrant marine industry. We carry a full line of packaging materials geared toward fisheries and related industries with the additional value of truly exceptional client service."

From booth #344, B2B Industrial Packaging will be introducing X2 high performance crab rope, X2 mooring rope and X2 purse line with the following performance benefits:

- Lightweight
- Low energy absorption
- High strength-to-weight ratio
- Better abrasion resistance
- One of the strongest copolymer ropes
- Available in 3 strand, 8 braid, 12 strand constructions

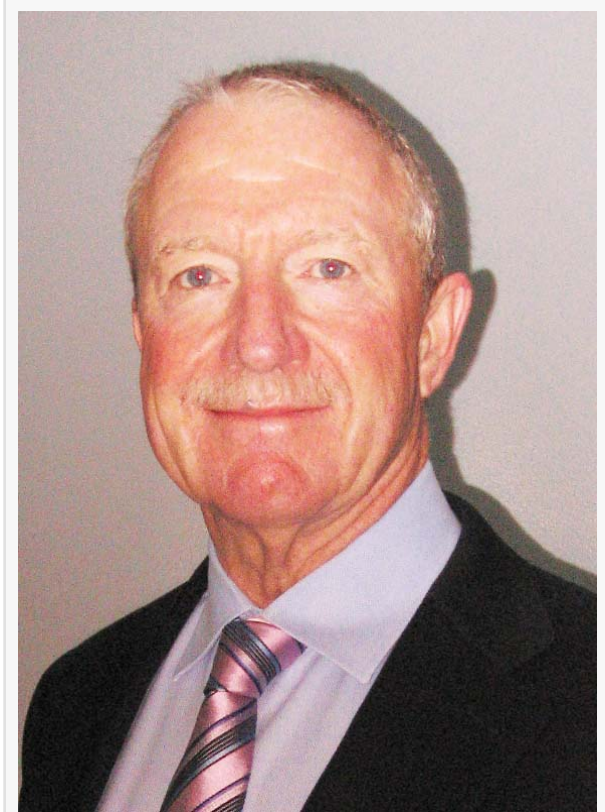

With excellent abrasion resistance, X2 premium crab rope is one of the strongest crab ropes on the market. It has lower stretch, coils well, uniform construction and consistent lay.

The company will also be showcasing, tape, strapping, stretch film, packaging supplies, Signode's new BXT3 tool and more.

Pacific Marine Expo will include more than 450 exhibitors including equipment companies, propulsion, builders and suppliers.

Buyers from Alaska to California come to Pacific Marine Expo looking for boat-related products and services. The event is primarily for commercial fisherman, but attendees are also from many other marine-related sectors including: marine services, vessel operations, seafood processing, boatbuilding/repair, research, education, yacht owners/operators, marine engineering, architecture, government, military, finance/leasing, insurance, life-safety/rescue and aquaculture.

This is a prime opportunity to source products and services in one place. There will be education
