

How to attract Indian tourists, and future risks and opportunities

India Tourism Industry Business & Investment Opportunity 2017 Market Research Reports

PUNE, INDIA, November 9, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Summary

"Tourism Source Market Insights: India", provides a thorough insight into India's outbound tourism industry. India is one of the fastest growing outbound tourist markets in the world, this report delves into different aspects of this market, including traveller profiles, traveller flows, spending patterns, main destination markets, how to attract Indian tourists, and future risks and opportunities.

India has experienced significant economic growth and a fast growing middle class, which has led to a surge in outbound tourism. India's outbound tourist market is one of the fastest growing in the world and in 2016 outbound trips totalled 23 million. Despite the huge growth, the number of outbound trips remains just 2% of the country's total population. Therefore, India presents a huge opportunity for the travel industry as incomes continue to grow and more of the population can afford to travel internationally.

Scope

- Business trips are the main reason for outbound tourism from India, comprising 34.6% of all trips in 2016.
- Bollywood has a significant impact on where Indians travel and has made Europe a highly desirable destination. However, the majority of international departures are within the Asia-Pacific region as Europe remains unaffordable for the large share of Indian tourists.
- Demonetization and the Goods and Services Tax could hinder growth in the outbound tourist market if there are significant economic implications.
