

Right On Brands (RTON) to Exhibit at New York's FounderMade Consumer Discovery Show

Right On Brands to Launch Endo Brands CBD Water at this year's show

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA (CA), UNITED STATES, November 17, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Right On Brands, Inc. (OTCQB: RTON) will showcase their hemp-based product lines at the FounderMade 2017 Consumer Discovery Show, taking place at Spring Studios in New York City on Friday, November 17 from 10 am - 4:30 pm and Saturday, November 18 from 10 am -5 pm.

The Consumer Discovery Show (CDS), presented by FounderMade, builder of emerging consumer brands in the health, wellness, beauty, food and beverage sectors. FounderMade features an impressive lineup of consumer goods business pioneers, as well as more than 150 inspiring brands that are out to reshape the consumer goods market.

"Our flagship Humbly Hemp snack bars is on retailers shelves in the greater Los Angeles area and has been available for purchase online at Amazon.com for several months" states Daniel Crawford CEO. "We know our target retailers want to carry hemp-based food products. The launch of Endo brands will further strengthen the company as customers are asking for CBD products to be available at retail instead of having to order from an unknown internet source. The Consumer Discover Show will showcase our brands to many buyers and influential decision makers. Many of these decision makers have had little or no exposure to hemp-based consumable products."
