Don't you wish you didn't have to learn life's lessons the hard way?
Beloved school teacher and guidance counselor, Ethel Pearson Levine, lived to age 101.

Over a period of 30 years, she wrote monthly articles for the Sunrise Lakes community in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Her articles embrace universal subjects from marriage and divorce to relationships, aging, and death. She took on subjects that affect us all. Within each article, there's a message, an affirmation, for living a meaningful life. This book is a collection of selected articles from that monthly news magazine, edited by her grandson, Gary Springer.

Don't you wish you didn't have to learn life's lessons the hard way?"

"Ethel Levine was a wonderful teacher. I loved her. She was very kind. I had a problem in 2nd grade. I became very nearsighted and couldn't see the board. She would let me come up to the front to copy my work. She tested my eyes and found out I needed glasses. It changed my life."

-Judy Lerner Cohen, former student

My Favorite Teacher

My favorite teacher was Mrs. Ethel Levine, whom I had in second grade. That was 58 years ago and to this day she is still a positive force in my life. She was a teacher who encouraged growth, curiosity, and creativity. She instilled in us a love of learning by making everything she did in her classroom fun and challenging.

As I look back at those days, I remember a teacher who demonstrated passion towards her profession and compassion towards her students. She made every student feel special and brought out the best in each of her students.

Sherry Koslov, former student from P.S. 128.
