

Mediatrix gateways receive official interoperability accreditation for Skype for Business

The Mediatrix VoIP platforms have successfully completed Skype for Business interoperability testing with Wipro, a Microsoft TechNet accredited test lab

SHERBROOKE, QUEBEC, CANADA, November 21, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Mediatrix enhanced VoIP gateways have been accredited a certification for Skype for Business. The tests were performed by the Microsoft approved test lab Wipro, between September and October 2017, with all Mediatrix media gateways and VoIP adaptor series, and have proved full compatibility with the Skype for Business platform.

The successful approval of the Wipro compatibility test with SfB endorses Media5 commitment towards robust and mature technology communications to the ITC global industry.”

Shadab K Subhan, Project Manager for Qualification Services at Wipro

The Mediatrix™ Media Gateways and ATAs, powered by Media5 Corporation, integrate a complete portfolio of on-premise access devices to connect telephony equipment to Cloud-based networks. Wipro compatibility testing for Skype for Business is a globally recognized interoperability certification standard, which proves that Mediatrix platforms integrate smoothly and are hassle-free with Skype for Business deployments.

According to product manager Eric Beaudoin, “Mediatrix platforms are suitable for either hybrid or pure IP networks, on-premise or hosted Skype for Business. Migrating to this high-powered communication platform with Mediatrix ensures mobility, teamwork, and customer engagement for enterprises seeking for more productivity and better outcomes”.

“The successful approval of the Wipro compatibility test with SfB endorses Media5 commitment towards robust and mature technology communications to the ITC global industry. It is imperative for organizations to assure the use of proven interoperable OEM hardware when adapting Skype for Business, in order to avoid any detrimental impact on the service performance. We are happy to assist Media5 in its endeavors towards promoting a better way to make business communication worldwide through the successful completion of this test”, Shadab K Subhan, Project Manager for Qualification Services at Wipro.
