Ms. Skinner brings over 10 years of experience helping restaurant owners and managers deal with a drastically changing labor environment. Founder and CEO of the global ZUUS Workforce Inc., headquartered in Denver, she has supported the restaurant industry to optimize their staffing levels to increase profit, improve customer service, and manage labor compliance across the United States, Australia, and Asia.

Having seen similar changes in the Australian market seven years ago to what is coming to Colorado, she feels she has a unique perspective to offer support. Ms. Skinner hopes to continue to support the Colorado Restaurant community through the upcoming minimum wage increases and extra overtime rules, so they can balance profitability and customer demand. She is passionate about contributing and helping lobby for legislation that supports the restaurant industry.
