Author Shares Details About The Website For His Song Book!

SAN ANTONIO, TX, UNITED STATES, November 21, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Arthur Christopher Gorham announces the launch of his website for his hymn book entitled 'Worship Songs and Hymns: For the Modern Christian Church'. This website offers easy access to important information about the book and the author.

Following the successful introduction of his book, Arthur Gorham finally advances the availability of his book to reach a wider audience who may find this piece of work spiritually helpful. He has written this book to describe God's authority and love to the world. He expresses God's love to his Church and to the world in a unique way; By putting up a collection of beautifully written songs to spread God's life-changing promises to the World.

The website features the following: 'Homepage' – where a general information about the book can be seen; 'Book' page – where a more detailed information about the book is disclosed, without eliminating the thrill once the person gets the chance to read the entire content of the book; the 'Author' page – where every reader will get the opportunity to know the background of the writer; the 'Order' page – where the readers are directed to pages where they can purchase a copy of the book; and lastly the 'Contact' page – where one gets to seek assistance should she or he have any questions about the book.

Arthur Christopher Gorham invites everyone, the Christian believers, the members of the Church, and all the individuals who may find his songbook useful, to explore this website and discover the beauty of giving back to the only Creator who made the existence of man possible, through this beautifully written and spiritually inspired hymnal.

About the Author:

Born and raised in the state of Texas, he was encouraged to learn about music, learn to sing at a young age and to broaden his creative mind in various music genres. He received music training by his father at a young age. Growing up, he continued to educate himself in music and music theory on his own. He knew at an early age that his music abilities were part of his calling, for God's service. He devoted his talent to his Christian calling. He has pursued biblical and religious studies from bible institutes. Biblical and doctrinal studies would play a major role in his music writing. He believes that the message in each song is more important for the reader to receive. He hopes one can learn and grow and be encouraged through the songs, to walk in the footsteps of the Lord.
