

Orblue Announces the Launch of its New Taco Holder

MIAMI, FL., U.S.A., November 22, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The recently launched Orblue Taco Holder comes in a pack of three, at a price that won't hurt your wallet.

A Miami based kitchen tools provider, Orblue, has introduced its latest product that is winning over its competitors. Orblue has been committed to providing top-notch products to its customers and making lives easier since 2013, when it was originally founded. The recently launched Orblue Taco Holder comes in a pack of three for $15.97, and is capable of handling three tacos each, or even four if flipped over.

The Taco Holder has an attractive, professional look, which makes it even more appealing. In addition, the stainless steel body provides excellent resistance against corrosion, making it durable as well as long lasting. The plastic coating on each of the taco shells enhances grip and protects from scratches. Along with tacos, the fashionable kitchen tool can also handle burritos, wraps, hotdogs, tortillas, and roll ups. The strong grip and efficient design will make sure your favorite filling remains in the right place.

Orblue has paid particular attention to the taco holder's standard size. The Miami-based company has made sure these holders fit on a standard sized plate to give it a professional look for presentation. This smart holder grips the tacos efficiently while holding them upright. It's also dishwasher safe.

This effective kitchen gadget is just a click away. A pack of three can be bought at Amazon.com for just $15.97.
