

Stoney's Rockin' Country Shares in Best Nightclub in Las Vegas Honors

Dark Horse Stoney's Rockin' Country Captures Best Nightclub Bronze and Reprises with the Gold for Best Country Bar

LAS VEGAS, NV, USA, November 22, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On November 12, 2017, the Las Vegas Review Journal released their annual Best of Las Vegas Awards, with a few important surprises, especially in the Best Nightclub category, where local independent country bar, Stoney's Rockin' Country, overran behemoths like Hakkasan, Tao, and Marquee Las Vegas to capture the Bronze in Best Nightclub.

The two-fisted/dark horse desert honky-tonk stampeded the giants in the heart of the Strip claiming both the Bronze and Gold awards in two highly contested categories.

"We are honored to earn Best Country Bar, and to take the Bronze in Best Nightclub blew me away," declared Stoney's Founder Chris Lowden. "These awards really speak to the quality and loyalty of our country music community here in Vegas. I want to sincerely thank everyone who voted for us. Our loyal patrons, employees, long-standing vendors, friends, and associates in Nashville and the country music community. They are all extended family and we really do owe our success to them," stated Lowden.

"Country music is our passion, and I couldn't be more stoked that being true to that passion earned us two Best of Las Vegas Awards this year. Well, our passion and of course dollar drinks for ladies on Thursdays," chuckled Lowden, with a nod to Stoney's World Famous Ladies Night, where every Thursday, for over a decade, ladies drink for $1 as a capacity crowd dances all night long.

In 2017, the likes of Jon Pardi, Brett Young, Luke Combs, Midland, Gretchen Wilson, Jerrod Niemann, Granger Smith, The Cadillac Three, Tony Jackson, Michael Ray, and dozens more rocked the Stoney's stage.

On a national level Stoney's Rockin' Country produced the ACM Party for a Cause Festival in 2017, which generated a $17,819 contribution to the ACM Lifting Lives Program.
