About Preschool or Childcare

A preschool/kindergarten or a nursery school is an educational establishment wherein a learning space is offered to children, primarily aged below 6 years, which is early childhood. Training on many skills for cognitive development is provided to children in this age group before they commence compulsory education at primary and secondary schools. China is said to have one of the largest education systems in the world, in terms of value, with an almost 99% literacy rate. In China, children receive nine years of compulsory education. The maximum number of students spend six years in primary school, and some of them follow the five-year cycle of primary school. Primary education is for children from the age of six. This stage of education is followed by three to four years of junior secondary education.

Technavio's analysts forecast the preschool or childcare market in China to grow at a CAGR of 14.01% during the period 2017-2021.
