CHINO, CALIFORNIA, USA, November 28, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chino, Calif., November 28, 2017 – Lollicup® USA Inc. invites VIP clients, vendors, and government officials to gather to celebrate and view the new products for the new year in an exclusive dinner. Vendors such as Ghirardelli, Monin, and more had a showcase where invitees were able to sample the products. In addition, Lollicup showcased their latest products and emphasized their eco-friendly initiative.

The event included guest speakers Marc Brandeis, CPA, who spoke about California sales and use tax, and Craig Taggart, who spoke about litigation trends in the food and beverage industry. Special guest speaker Congresswoman Judy Chu also said a few words and then presented founders Alan Yu and Marvin Cheng with the Congressional Recognition Award.

"I went to Lollicup for their open house in 2014. That's when I met Alan Yu. I came to understand when I saw the plans that Lollicup represents the American dream," said Chu.

By the American dream, Chu was referring to how Lollicup started with an idea and a small boba shop and has now blossomed into a $150 million enterprise, becoming the premiere manufacturer and distributor of beverage and disposables for the foodservice industry.

The event continued with a ten course meal, interactive activities, raffle prizes, and fun had by all.

Yu said, "It was an honor that everyone came to celebrate with us and celebrate the success we've had together."
