

LTEN Announces First Confirmed Keynote Speaker for the 2018 Annual Conference

ROANOKE, VA, UNITED STATES, November 29, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- LTEN today announced the first confirmed keynote speaker for the 2018 LTEN Annual Conference. Connie Podesta, Hall of Fame Keynote Speaker and award-winning author, is one of three keynote speakers to present at the Annual Conference on June 11-14, 2018 in Phoenix, AZ.

Podesta will take the conference stage to share her expertise on how to stand out in sales, leadership, relationships and more. With 25 years' experience in motivational speaking, Podesta has reached over two million people in a thousand organizations from every major industry. At the LTEN Conference, she will speak to nearly 950 pharma, biotech, medical device and diagnostic trainers and leaders from across the U.S.

“The LTEN Annual Conference builds on our mission to be the essential resource for life sciences trainer education and networking — enabling members to harness their collective knowledge; apply leading-edge technology; and deliver world class learning.” said Dawn Brehm, Executive Director of LTEN. “Connie Podesta will immensely contribute to the organization’s mission by offering a revitalized way for attendees to build upon their individual strengths.”

There are over 150 presenters who will address conference attendees. Conference speakers will share their expertise on topics ranging from personal growth, career advancement, customer engagement, healthcare reform, leadership, learning technology and more.

Registration is now open for the LTEN Annual Conference. Attendees can access early bird rates until December 1, 2017 (super early bird rate) and March 2, 2018. The LTEN Conference, hosted by nonprofit professional association Life Sciences Trainers & Educators Network (LTEN), is the world's largest event for life sciences training professionals, attracting nearly 950 attendees who come together for a full day of networking, professional development, and personal growth opportunities.

More information and registration is available at www.LTENconference.com.
