About contract logistics

Contract logistics is the outsourcing of various elements of logistics and distribution by companies to third-party logistics solutions providers. Companies outsource some or all of their SCM functions such as transportation, warehousing, location tracking, and integration operation services. Often, third-party logistics solutions providers go beyond logistics and offer VAS such as inventory management, cross-docking, door-to-door delivery, and packaging of products. The need for efficiency in delivery, inventory management, and freight forwarding is propelling the demand for contract logistics in South America.

Technavio's analysts forecast the contract logistics market in South America to grow at a CAGR of 6.92%, in terms of revenue, over the period 2014-2019.
