

Carole Bellew of Bookkeeping + More Returns to CUTV News Radio

CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS, UNITED STATES, December 7, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For many business owners, the least popular person in their organization is the bookkeeper. Every business owner would like to pay as little tax as possible on their earnings each year, but many would argue that bookkeepers are a necessary evil, protecting both you and your business from audits by the IRS that can result in fines and in some cases even jail time.

Carole Bellew is the founder of Bookkeeping + More, which offers the quality bookkeeping of a large accounting firm with the personal attention provided by an in-house bookkeeper. Her motto is: "You Build Your Business; We'll Balance Your Books."

"The 'Plus More' is that we're at the table making sure everyone is on the same page doing the right thing," says Carole. "If you want to play games, go somewhere else."

For over 20 years, Bookkeeping + More has helped hundreds of businesses and individuals manage their operations proactively, enabling them to plan their business growth and handle their taxes, instead of reacting to their day-to-day problems.

"We're very good at detail and we get the job done," says Carole. "We don't give up until we get what we need.

Our clients are experts in their field and we're experts in bookkeeping. We go out of our way to get everything done for them, so that they have time to work on their business. They may not be happy with paying the tax, but we can't do anything about that. We report the numbers, just as they are."

In fact, Bookkeeping + More is so good at what they do, they are often called in by the state's attorney general to help them work on cases involving white collar crime.

"I find the work very interesting, to see what these people are up to and what they're trying to play and how they're doing it," says Carole. "The reality is no one can be above the law."

"That's why I really want to make sure all my clients are above-board doing what they're supposed to be doing, paying their bills and paying their taxes," says Carole. "Listen, I pay mine!"

CUTV News Radio will feature Carole Bellew in an interview with Jim Masters on December 11th at 3pm EDT.
