

Stoney's Rockin' Country Kicks NFR Opening Weekend Off with Deep Musical Lineup

Brodie Stewart, CJ Solar, Morgan Wallen, Troy Cartwright, and Kenton Bryant Set to Perform LIVE

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, December 6, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Stoney's Rockin' Country kicks off NFR 2017 with an amazing live music lineup featuring Brodie Stewart and CJ Solar Friday night December 8th, CJ Solar returns Saturday night December 9th with Morgan Wallen, and Troy Cartwright and Kenton Bryant on Sunday night December 10th.

"You know when NFR is in town, it's all about the live music. People from all over come to Vegas for a good country time. Everyone jumps on the country bandwagon this week, but we stay true to our roots and feature emerging country artists," exclaimed Stoney's founder, Chris Lowden.

"He's right, our hope is that we introduce them to a whole new audience this weekend," added the man simply known by Toad at Stoney's Rockin' Country, "like Morgan Wallen, I mean he's amazing."

Morgan Wallen was a 2014 contestant on the The Voice. He co-wrote A Thousand Horses single 'Preachin' to the Choir.' Now, he ventures to make a name for himself as an artist as he rocks the Stoney's stage this Saturday at 9pm.

Wallen will be sharing the stage Saturday with CJ Solar who is no stranger to the Stoney's stage. "CJ played here earlier in the year and I was blown away. His combination of country and southern rock resonated with our audience and we knew we needed him back for NFR because he would kill it. That's why he is here two nights Friday and Saturday," detailed Lowden.

Fast-forward to Sunday night and country music fans will be hit with the 1-2 punch of Troy Cartwright,
