

Xtreem Solution Keeps Up The Cutting-edge Services After Soaring Success in IT Domain

PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, December 12, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The IT sector is constantly coming up with new ideas and innovations even after many ups and downs happened in the past few years. Xtreem Solution, one of the rising stars of the IT domain is firming its position and setting milestones for its peers with exemplary achievements in the mobile app and development arena. The IT company found its inception in 2008 and jumped into the field with just a handful of staffs to gain customer loyalty and some projects.

In the first place, the marketplaces like Freelancer, Elance, and Upwork were the primary targets of the company to flourish the entry-level business. With sheer dedication and round the clock hard work, the venture managed to convert some regular clients into the patrons. The dream of Mr. Vikash Jangid, CEO of Xtreem Solution was backed by Mr. Shivratan Jangid, co-founder of the venture and by the virtue of the combined ideas and efforts, the company managed to earn reputation and resources from the marketplaces.

The CEO of the venture talks about the difficult journey of the team which gave many bumpy rides in order to grow and sustain in the market. According to the company, brick and mortar business model was not enough to drive a significant number of customers. The aim was to grow the business online for which a friendly and engaging website was needed. The team commenced building a professional business website for the company so that the business becomes global and reaches millions of customers.

In 2013, the major goal of the company became lead generation and to approach the big players of different industries. Twenty more professionals joined the company this year and helped in expanding the ideas as well the business. The leading-edge tools like SEO and Adwords were focused and gratifying results were found. The venture kept growing without negotiating with our service quality and groundbreaking ideas. The company was no more limited to the Web Development Services but entered the E-commerce and digital marketing domains as well.

The year 2017 gave a new edge to the company's business. More than 105 IT professionals lent their hands to take the company's business to new heights. During the graceful journey of 9 years, not only the services of the company became robust but the infrastructure and technology were improved drastically as well. The tagline of the company 'Perfection Delivered' literally went with the company's image and performance. Xtreem Solution even received many positive reviews. One of the reviews on Clutch said "Xtreem Solution delivered a flawless design that has received positive reviews and is competitive in a crowded market. The team was hands-on from the start with reliable, accountable, and detail-oriented project management. They provided good communication with regular progress and status updates."

Xtreem Solution claims to have completed over 3000 projects so far and dedicated more than 35,000 hours on coding. Xtreem Solution served some of the big names and received appreciations from Clutch, Appfutura, Upwork, Microsoft, Silicon India, Web Guru and to name a few. Magnolia, Daily View and LA FAVORTIA are some of the eye-catching works of the company that are driving the business at a great pace.
