PUNE, INDIA, December 8, 2017
/EINPresswire.com/ --

Non/low alcohol beer is drawing considerable interest from brewers – seemingly with good reason. As well as remaining strong in established markets, such as Iran, non/low alcohol beer is seeing dynamic growth in much of Western Europe, boosted by rising health awareness and higher quality releases, while total beer stagnates. However, in all but a handful of markets, there is still a long way to go before non/low alcohol beer can claim to be anything other than a niche add-on to standard beer.

Non/Low Alcohol Beer: Can it Live up to the Hype? global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Alcoholic Drinks market in both the off-trade and the on-trade, it highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and brands by total volume, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, packaging innovations, economic/lifestyle influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.
