

Cannabis Becoming Mainstream: CannaSOS Successfully Concludes The First Round Pre-Sale

CannaSOS has successfully concluded the first round of the official Pre-Sale to become the premiere crypto cannabis coin across the globe.

ONTARIO, TORONTO, CANADA, December 12, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With over 10,000,000 Perks Utility Tokens already sold 3 weeks after announcing their Pre-Sale, PCT Is positioned as a premier cryptocurrency for the cannabis industry. CannaSOS is a successful prototype of a global cannabis ecosystem that has been utilized and integrated within the industry for 3 years.

Several companies have tried to integrate a solution through token offerings but, unlike existing token offerings, CannaSOS already has a working solution and rewards based platform with thousands of users.

The final Presale is from December 11th, 2017 to January 02nd, 2018. The Token Sale is from January 02nd, 2018 to February 19th 2018.

Since its inception the platform has steadily increased its userbase and traffic by over 10% per month. Since their token offering this has exponentially increased to more than 800% per month. CannaSOS has announced several strategic partnerships to facilitate point of sale solutions, positioning the platform for adoption across cannabis industry.

Their strategic partnerships with industry experts will allow them to successfully navigate the financial regulatory environment as they leverage their existing reward system and userbase to become the premier crypto cannabis coin.

The PCT Transaction Platform (PTP)

The PCT Transaction Platform (PTP) is a primary mechanism that will allow subscribers to conduct financial operations with PCT token which is run on a decentralized blockchain technology.

The PCT Transaction Platform will minimize fraud and illicit activity in the digital marketplace, help to resolve disputes fairly with the use of decentralized blockchain technology, promote honest business practices and build strong B2B and B2C relations.

The platform is regulated by the participants of the blockchain. The platform will incorporate a cryptocurrency wallet and be free to use by the public.

About CannaSOS and PCT

Headquartered in Toronto, Canada, the social network and advertising platform has successfully tailored its efforts towards the cannabis community since its inception in 2014.

CannaSOS has 4,800+ marijuana strain database, 8,500+ user strain reviews, over 3,200,000 strain page views, 3700+ posted articles. With such a robust platform and industry partnerships, CannaSOS is striving towards critical mass, paving the way for a new industry standard within the cannabis community for both businesses and consumers.
