

Lead Generator, Cars Digital Inc. to Offer Own Data Import and Export Services

Lead Generation Company will provide dealerships, third-party vendors, partners with data import and export services; deliver dealership's database via FTP.

LONG ISLAND, NY, UNITED STATES, December 13, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, Cars Digital Inc., has announced the ability to provide dealers their own dealer portal including data export services which can be used to upload inventory and explode VIN and OEM data. This is a significant new development for the small company, based on Commack, NY, which previously needed to rely on third party integrations from various automotive website companies. With this new addition, Cars Digital now has the ability to syndicate vehicle data even if the dealer has no website or inventory system provider, greatly helping the company acquire new start-ups dealers just beginning to go digital.

“Today we’re announcing the launch of a new addition our company will use to on-board new dealerships whom have not yet chosen a data provider or do not yet have a DMS [Dealer Management System] system” said company John Colascione, company CEO. “Even more exciting is this will also enable us to provide our own dealer websites, making us a more all-inclusive dealer technology provider” he added.
