

Stoney's Rockin' Country Continues Strong Live Music Lineup During NFR's Second Weekend

CJ Solar, Alex Williams, and Darryl Worley Set to Perform LIVE

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, December 13, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Stoney's Rockin' Country continues strong live music lineup during the National Final Rodeo's second weekend. CJ Solar and Alex Williams return to the Stoney's stage Friday night December 15th with an encore Sunday night December 17th. Country music veteran Darryl Worley hits the stage Saturday night December 16th.

"CJ Solar and Alex Williams played our stage earlier this year, and we knew come rodeo time, the crowds would love them even more," said Stoney's founder, Chris Lowden.

"So much so, we asked both men to play two nights this weekend." added Toad, Stoney's Director of Marketing.

Alex Williams is one of the 10 New Country Artists You Need to Know according to Rolling Stone. The Indiana native's style is somewhere between Jennings and Jones. CJ Solar fuses country and southern rock together. He's opened for The Cadillac Three, Old Dominion, Hank Williams Jr., and more. Catch both men Friday and Sunday night.

Saturday night Darryl Worley will take the Stoney's stage for the first time. The "Have You Forgotten" singer is sure to be a hit with rodeo-goers as he performs hits like I "Miss My Friend", "Have Your Forgotten", and "Sounds Like Life to Me."
