

Yellowstone Capital Assists in Helping Hatzalah Ambulance Corp Upgrade Their Communications Systems

Both EMT's and Dispatchers, have been provided with brand new Digital radios.

JERSEY CITY, NJ, UNITED STATES, December 15, 2017 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Led by Isaac Stern, CEO of Yellowstone Capital, Hatzalah of Union County is going to be able to help more patients who are in critical need of urgent assistance. Thanks to the success of their most recent fundraising campaign, all Hatzalah personnel, both EMT's and Dispatchers, have been provided with brand new Digital radios. The new system is Digital and utilizes up to date technology while the previous system was analog and outdated.

"There is no doubt that Yellowstone Capital is partners in our lifesaving mission. With their support, we are able to continue providing the utmost in care for our patients. Both our community and our entire squad are forever grateful for their constant support," Chief Yudi Abraham said.

Hatzalah of Union County is an all volunteer ambulance Corp that serves the Union County NJ area.

Staffed by 24 EMT's and 19 Emergency Dispatchers, under the medical Direction of Dr. Ken Lavelle, Hatzalah serves its community and patients with the highest level of pre-hospital emergency care. All members of Hatzalah are volunteers and receive no financial compensation.

Throughout the past six years, Yellowstone Capital has been by far the largest donor to Hatzalah with total donations amounting to $310,702.00.

If you would like to participate in donating to this worthwhile cause, please contact Yudi Abraham at yudiu18@gmail.com
